

WINE ENTHUSIAST®

THE WORLD IN YOUR GLASS

DECEMBER 2014

BUYING GUIDE

91

POINTS

Everything feels balanced in this ripe—not overripe—Pinot Noir. It smells like plump black cherry and blackberry, tastes rich but crisp, has firm tannins and acidity for structure, and a long, lingering finish. With medium body, a velvety texture and flavor complexity, this is the complete Pinot package.

—J.G.

CALISTA
PINOT NOIR
Anderson Valley
v. 2012

CALISTAWINES.COM